With a due north aspect, level walk to the beach and timeless 1950's features visible throughout, this delightful beach house has an instantly appealing ambience - some will say it has 'soul'.

High ceilings, large picture windows, suntrap nooks and an oversized back deck, it's an eclectic mix - part Arthouse, part Queenslander, part original Newport' beach pad AND there's still plenty of scope to add value (and your own touches).

The upstairs living spaces welcome the sea breeze. The morning is sun glorious, the winter sun more glorious. Downstairs is a haven in high summer.
