Bring The Family

Solid three bedroom brick family home that offers spacious open plan living complimented by sunny front and rear entertainment areas. Come and enjoy light, bright and airy living spaces with new carpet and painted throughout.

This is a home that should satisfy the needs and wants of most buyers. There is a large family size kitchen, full bathroom and en-suite attached to the main bedroom.

For the young couple/family there is the addition of a two bedroom post war granny flat which is ideal for extra income or in-law accommodation. The more mature family may want to utilise the flat for teenagers or young adult children,

Those buyers looking for a quality building site to build their dream home will see a near level block of land of over 700m2 with a 15.24m frontage and orientation to the north.
