Grandma's House

You all know that familiar look, smell and feeling when you excitedly went to your grandparents home many years ago.

Welcome back!!

Character filled and loaded with old world charm is this three bedroom cottage style home that offers formal and informal living areas, yet is crying out for a renovation and makeover.

Standing out the front you wont believe it actually has three separate living areas.

Private BBQ patio and backyard for the kids, not to mention plenty of off street parking.

This home is a blank canvas waiting for a new family to transform it or otherwise a great block to build your dream home.
